Incidence of Charge

824 A. Except in the following cases the Travelling allowance of an officer, on whatever duty he may be employed, is charged to the same head as his pay. This article applies to the Travelling allowance of a Medical officer for a journey to attend an an officer entitled to such attendance.

(a). Travelling allowance paid to Gazetted officers for attending examination is debited to the head "Miscellaneous".

(b). The Travelling Allowance of a Military officer attached to a Home-Breeding Department is debited to the Civil Department, even when his pay is debited to the Military Department.

(c) The Travelling Allowance drawn by the Medical officer in charge of is transferred.

824 C. The Travelling allowance of an officer, called away from his duty to give evidence in any court, is, during the period of his absence, debited to the Department which would bear the charge if the officer were on duty.

Subd to Secy

Under art. 617 of the Servic Regns "the travelling allowance of an officer, on whatever duty he may be employed, is charged to the same head as his pay."

As in the present case the pay of the Marahatti clerk is chargeable to Publice Works, their travelling allce is also chargeable to the same source.

May this be pointed out to the Chief Engr.?
